

Summer School in France

Unlike any other programme on Europe, EDHEC Summer School "Globalising Europe" combines a hands-on business perspective with historical, cultural and economic analysis to take students on an intriguing journey through the spaces of European excellence and the global markets it serves.

During this intensive programme, participants attend one or two modules covering essential topics on the European business scene, travel through several regions of France, visit leading companies in Southern and Northern France and meet with their management.

Discover the EDHEC Summer School.

